Registering an educational institution

Print

To register an educational institution, the institution needs to complete and return the educational institution registration form .

If your institution's registration is successful, a departmental representative will be in contact to discuss how this process applies to your institution, and the department's standard terms governing this process.

The Queensland Government reserves the right to withdraw an institution's registration if it is found that the institution is not complying with the department's policy, including eligibility requirements as stated on the application form.
