Yeerongpilly station - extended closure

Print

Last reviewed: Wednesday 23 Oct 2024 at 4.49pm

On Monday 18 September 2023, Yeerongpilly station closed for important Cross River rail upgrade works. The station is planned to reopen in early-2025.

During the station closure, trains will run express through Yeerongpilly station in both directions.

The pedestrian overpass over Fairfield Road will remain open during the station closure with temporary closures of either the lifts or stairs to enable construction of the new station entries. These works will be staged to ensure access to either the lift or stairs will be available.

The park 'n' ride on Wilkie Street will also be closed throughout construction.

Alternative services

Travel by bus

There are a number of alternative travel options available, including StationLink route 19 which runs from Rocklea station to the PA Hospital station.

Throughout the station closure, two bus stops on Wilkie Street outside the station will be temporarily closed.

Routes 104, 105, 108 and 19 will service the new and existing bus stops on Green Street, located approximately 60 metres from the closed stops on Wilkie Street.

Travel by train

If you prefer to continue to travel by train, Yeronga and Moorooka stations are open.

If you need an accessible station, Yeronga station is approximately 800 metres north of Yeerongpilly station and is the closest accessible station with lift access.

Remember to plan your journey in advance before you travel.
