Student Special Program Pass

Print

A Student Special Program Pass is issued to:

- students with a disability eligible under the School Transport Assistance Program for Student with Disabilities, and
- English as an Additional Language or Dialect (EAL/D) students.

Who can apply?

Students with a disability

Students with a disability who have been assessed for transport assistance and qualify under the School Transport Assistance Program for Student with Disabilities  may receive this pass if they are assessed as capable of travelling on public transport.

English as an Additional Language or Dialect (EAL/D) students

EAL/D students who are enrolled in a Department of Education approved Intensive Language Unit (ILU) are eligible for 12 months of government funded travel from the initial date of enrolment in a ILU.

There is no distance or age criteria applicable to this assistance.

Principals have authority to grant an additional six months of travel assistance for those students requiring continued language support beyond the initial 12 month period.

How to apply for a pass

Applications are submitted through the school the student attends.

General enquiries should be directed to the school.
